MEMORANDUM FOR:

DDI/ACIS

VIA:

Chief, Legislative Liaison Division

FROM:

Legislative Liaison

SUBJECT:

House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence
Member Albert Gore, Jr.'s, Proposal for Meaningful
Arms Control

1. On 22 March 1982, Albert Gore, Jr. (D-Tenn.) addressed the House of Representatives on the subject of arms control. On 8 April, the Washington Post op ed page featured an article by Mr. Gore in which he reiterated his position on this issue. During a recent visit to the Soviet Union, members of an American delegation quoted the Soviets as saying that Mr. Gore's proposal could form the basis for future arms negotiations. The delegation's comments appeared in last Sunday's Washington Post in an article entitled "Soviets Said to Consider Faster Nuclear Missile Launch in Crisis."

2. Per HPSCI staffer Fuerth's request, I am attaching for your review Mr. Gore's 22 March speech as well as the two pertinent articles. [ ] would like to know whether we have seen any indications in "Pravda" or elsewhere that the Soviets are favorably disposed toward Mr. Gore's proposal. Are the comments made by the American delegation representative of a new trend in thought, or is this merely another instance of Soviet deception?

3. Please advise.
